*Reissued for technical reasons on 6 January 2014

CONTENTS

- I. Introduction
- II. Consolidated list of entitlements with an effective date of 1 January 2014
- III. List of new and reactivated duty stations with an effective date of 1 January 2014
- IV. List of duty stations on transition as of 1 January 2014
- V. List of countries where staff are entitled to reimbursement for the costs of basic medical examinations for accompanying family members with an effective date of 1 January 2014

INTRODUCTION

This circular presents the consolidated list of entitlements for all active duty stations, as well as a list highlighting which duty stations have been reactivated, or are new, since the last review.

Furthermore, the circular contains a list of countries where staff are entitled to reimbursement for the costs of basic medical examinations for accompanying family members, and of duty stations which are on transition. Following the annual review of field duty stations according to conditions of life and work, the effective date for the relevant documents is 1 January 2014.

The booklet on the mobility and hardship arrangements and related supplementary information on the ICSC website <http://icsc.un.org/resources/hrpd/mah/MOBILITYENG.pdf> provides details of the various allowances and additional benefits provided under these Arrangements for Mobility and Hardship.

New duty stations

When international staff with one year or more assignments are deployed for the first time to a field duty station by an organization of the United Nations common system, it is called a new duty station under the hardship classification system. In that case, the organization should request ICSC to assign a temporary classification for the newly established duty station.

Reactivated duty stations

When an organization decides to field international staff for one year or more assignments to an inactive duty station, it is called a reactivated duty station. The normal procedure to reactivate an inactive duty station is to request ICSC to assign a temporary classification by the organization.

Temporary classification

Temporary classifications are assigned by the ICSC upon request by the organizations without a formal review. A temporary classification rating is only valid for a period of one year and therefore, it expires one year after the date of assignment and automatically becomes inactive. In addition, a temporary classification rating becomes inactive when a duty station no longer has internationally recruited staff assigned to it. A temporary classification is subject to a subsequent review by the Working Group for the classification of duty stations according to conditions of life and work, based on the submission of a questionnaire by the duty station within a year.

IV. List of duty stations on transition as of 1 January 2014

Transitional classification

A transitional classification indicates that a duty station is being monitored by the Working Group on conditions of life and work for potential reclassification. A duty station under transitional classification must submit a full questionnaire within a year.
